32 WHEREAS, school bullying, harassment, and intimidation greatly reduce a student's 33 ability to both achieve and surpass academic standards in Utah;

34 WHEREAS, school bullying, harassment, and intimidation can directly affect a

37 WHEREAS, bullying, harassment, and intimidation can take physical, verbal, and 38 written forms, including use of electronic media;

39 WHEREAS, it is long past time for not only society, but also for each community in 40 Utah, down to the individual school community level, to acknowledge that bullying is not some 41 sort of right of passage to be simply ignored or tolerated;

42 WHEREAS, incidents of reported school-related bullying in the state and throughout 43 the nation are ample evidence of the need for intervention;

44 WHEREAS, many bullies eventually end up with criminal records and are involved in 45 abusive relationships because they have not learned appropriate social behavior;

47 provide a healthy, positive, and safe learning atmosphere for all Utah children in the state's 48 public schools;

49 WHEREAS, many schools across the state are already engaged in prevention efforts,
50 including Utah's K-12 prevention program, Prevention Dimensions;

51 WHEREAS, these programs emphasize assessment of the prevalence of bullying 52 incidents and preventive, early intervention strategies; and

53 WHEREAS, with the help of local school boards, school districts and school personnel,
54 parents, and concerned individuals, school bullying can be effectively addressed:
